

The Ann Running Kindle (ARK) Award
Sponsored by North Yorkers for Disabled Persons

For the last two BTI Conferences an award has been given to a participant who has an interest in lifelong learning and a desire to share their creativity with others. This award is dedicated to the memory of Ann Running, a woman with complex communication needs who relied on AAC to interact with those around her. She was a strong advocate for AAC users and a leader in her community. In her honour, we again will be awarding a Kindle e-reader to an AAC user who shares these attributes. One of Ann's great joys in the last year of her life was the use of a Kindle e-reader. It gave her unlimited access to reading and the inspiration to start a book club.

If you rely on AAC and are proud of something you have created (a poem, a story, an article, artwork), or of a contribution you have made to the AAC community, we encourage you to share it at the BTI Conference on October 3rd, 2015.

To participate, please check the box below and provide a contact number.

- I would like to be considered for the ARK award and will be attending the Breaking the ICE Conference.
- Please provide a number where we can contact you prior to the Conference: _____

All entries will be considered for the prize of an e-reader at the Breaking the ICE Conference on October 3, 2015.